A Quick Overview

800- and 1,600-square-foot one- and two-bedroom villas are spread out on twelve acres of lawns and gardens, overlooking the white sand and turquoise water of San San Beach, and a Princess's island. Goblin Hill's villa-style vacation offers the most potent relaxation around, with a dash of 70s-tastic style and pace thrown in for good measure. Step out onto the lush lawns in front of your villa and feel true calm. Laze in the pool, and read in planters' chairs strategically placed for the best views. The Almond Tree Lookout is an ideal spot for passing lazy hours overlooking a perfect view of Princess Nina's Island and San San Bay, or taking startlingly lovely photographs.

The Hummingbird Terrace is perfect for a board or card game, as well as for sightings of its namesake iridescent streamertail hummingbirds at numerous feeders. Ex-Covid, the Terrace Bar is open for drinks from 3pm to 10pm, to the sound of vintage reggae. Our extensive grounds play host to many indigenous tropical trees and birds. For walkers, once around the grounds will take about 15 minutes. Complimentary low-speed wireless Internet service is provided in our main public areas. Villas offer a Roku system for music streaming through TVs.

Goblin Hill offers you the space and privacy of a villa, and the feel of a boutique hotel.

The Villas

Your villa is a 800-square-foot one-bedroom or a 1,600-square-foot two-bedroom complete home away from home, spacious and inviting.

You enter the two-bedroom villa through a private garden; there's a half-bathroom and a complete kitchen with a pass-through counter to a dining level. Two steps down are a large living room and a terrace facing the view where you will probably have all your meals.

Upstairs are two spacious bedrooms with wall-to-wall windows, one facing the sea and the other the mountains. Each has a skylit bathroom, ample closet space, air-conditioning, ceiling fans and high, exposed shingle roofs. With the cross-ventilation, you may never use air-conditioning. The bedroom facing the sea view has a king-size bed, and the other, two twins, perfect for a family. Two extra cots can be added for larger families.

Adjoining villas are ideal for large families or groups. Groups can be accommodated for meals together on a villa terrace, or on the lawn in front of a villa.

The one-bedroom villas are either on the ground floor or on the second floor. Villas have wall-width glass doors and windows framing the views. There is a kitchen, living/dining room, and a terrace or balcony as large as the two-bedroom villa terrace. Villas have a king-size bed; and air-conditioning and ceiling fans (please turn them off when you leave the room). Bring your own downloaded video content for offline viewing on your own device here.

Your housekeeper is responsible for the items in her villa, including linens, crockery, glasses, and towels. We would appreciate your assistance in returning all items which you may have used elsewhere on the property, particularly glasses and towels.

The Food Experience

Your choice: Delivery, or a personal Cook

Reservations-only prix-fixe meals are available for delivery to your villa — dinner and breakfast are US$48 per person daily (this includes both meals), including tax and service charge; $24 for kids 7-12; complimentary for kids 6 and under. Meals may also served in a low-key restaurant setting on our Hummingbird Terrace, where there is also the convenience of our bar (and during the day, the added benefit of sightings of hummingbirds feeding). Sofas and wicker chairs are ideal for a before-dinner drink or an after-dinner coffee, to the sounds of vintage reggae from our bar. Adjoining the restaurant is our library, with cable TV, board games, magazines, and books. Please reserve at the Front Desk, preferably before you leave in the morning for whatever adventure you have chosen for the day.

In limited quantity, for a charge of $36 daily, you can opt for personal cook-housekeeper service. Bring your own groceries, or we can buy them for you at cost plus 10%. Discuss what you'd like with your cook, perhaps from the menu page on page 6. Or just ask her to surprise you with some tasty Jamaican dishes. You may also enjoy visiting the market with her.

 Please let us know your choice before you arrive, via the Preferences box when booking on our website, or via frontdesk@goblinhill.com.

Your housekeeper does not stay in the villa unless she is cleaning or cooking, as your privacy and comfort are paramount. When you need her, use WhatsApp to call the Front Desk at 876.416.5917, or phone +876.993.7443. Some of our guests like to cook for themselves. If so, please let her know. She will be pleased to assist as much, or as little as you as choose.

Her hours are from 8am to 8pm, with a break in the afternoon. She must meet her transportation home by 8:30pm, so we would appreciate your planning dinner times accordingly. If you need her to stay for a later dinner, there is an overtime charge after 8pm of US$5 per hour. For those staying a week or more, on one night of the week your housekeeper will leave at 5pm. On that night, you may decide to try an area restaurant for dinner, or she can prepare and leave a meal for you.

Illustrations of local fruits and vegetables and seasonings, and hints as to how they are prepared, are shown on page 5.

Let us also know if you would like us to stock your villa before your arrival, with bottled water (required in our area due to excess salt), Red Stripe beer, snacks, extra ice, Appleton rum, or other necessities of life. Successive purchases can be made by your housekeeper in Port Antonio; we buy your items at a supermarket where we have an account, and add it to your room bill plus a 10% administrative charge. You may check the receipts at the Front Desk; please settle your food account with us every three days.

Please have Jamaican or US dollars on hand to give to your housekeeper for the purchase of items not found in the supermarket where we have an account, such as for fruit, fish, and lobster in season (excluding April 1-June 30), and for her transportation to go shopping. You can budget approximately what you pay at home for food purchases, or a bit more because of import costs.

The nearby village of Drapers has a small grocery store, which carries basic items. If you have the time and are interested, a visit to the market with your housekeeper on a Friday or Saturday can provide an insider's look into Jamaican town life.

Note that fish in Jamaica is typically prepared whole, with bones.

For a taste of Europe, our neighbour Vera from Belgium makes delicious croissants, quiches, danishes, pains au chocolat, cannoli, flans, guava pockets, brioches, mini-pies, and cheesecakes. Her menu is at the Front Desk. Call or write before 5pm for delivery the next morning: +876.567.9998 or +876.543.0847, or at veravenster@gmail.com. A delivery charge of US$5 applies.

Please let us know about your housekeeper experience, as this will guide us in our continuing efforts in training, and/or recognition.

On The Property

Pool

The pool is surrounded by shady vine covered alcoves, with chaises longues for relaxing, and tables for board games or using your laptop.

Tennis Courts

Currently awaiting resurfacing! Otherwise: two tennis courts are centrally located near the pool, and are sited north/south for optimal sun. Area tennis pro Nicky is an ideal partner if you want a tennis partner or a good workout, and he is a good-humored teacher of both adults and children. Let us know ahead of time so we can book him for you. Rates are US$20 an hour and he has racquets for rent. You may also use our racquets and balls; ask for them at the Front Desk.

The Hummingbird Terrace Bar

Have cocktails while Jamaica's signature, endemic 'Doctor Bird', hummingbirds with long twin streamertails, zoom past your head through the open terrace. Request vintage reggae, calypso from Trinidad, or Diana Krall — whatever suits your mood. The Terrace Bar is open 3pm to 10pm. Wednesday nights from 7:30pm on, we offer a drink special and invited neighborhood friends often drop in.

Rum Punch Party

The Manager's rum punch party, on the lawns overlooking San San Bay or on the Hummingbird Terrace, to the sounds of a live mento band, takes place on occasional Saturdays at 5:30pm. Enjoy complimentary rum punch, or 'Ting', a Jamaican grapefruit soft drink, and warm, freshly-made coconut chips, and meet our guests from all over the world, including many from Kingston vacationing for the weekend. The sunsets are lovely, so bring a camera.

Gardens

There are over 11 acres of lawns and gardens to explore on the property. At the edge of the Great Lawn are overlooks sited for you to enjoy spectacular views of Princess Nina Aga Khan's island, San San Bay, and the craggy, dramatic Alligator Head headland. You will stroll past exotic flowering and fruit trees, and see and hear many birds indigenous to Jamaica. For avid birdwatchers, 22 species of birds have been observed on our property, where the abundance of trees and vegetation, seeds and flowers provide a natural habitat. Our gardeners will be happy to pick a coconut and cut it open for you to drink. If our mango trees are bearing fruit, please help yourself. There is a playground for young children with swings and slides located just behind the bamboo bordering the far side of the tennis courts. Planters' chairs are provided for parents or nannies.

The Library

The library is a quiet spot off the Terrace when you can browse our books and magazines, watch cable TV, or meet friends. It is also used for yoga classes, retreats, and group functions.

The Hummingbird Terrace

The Hummingbird Terrace is the perfect spot to relax, read a book and catch up on email. Your company: a charm of hummingbirds of various types; including the magnificent, iridescent green, Doctor Bird, the streamer-tailed symbol of Jamaica, found only on this island. The birds' lightning-fast hovering, chases and feedings, with their trademark loud whirr, are a show unto themselves.

Entertainment

Entertainment on property, in addition to our Terrace Bar and its Wednesday night specials, includes cable TV in the library, dominoes, and cards and board games; although for many, the preferred evening's entertainment after a hard day at the beach, or rafting down the Rio Grande, is relaxing on the lawns or at the Almond Tree Lookout overlooking Nina's Island, lulled by the sound of the sea and the nearby chirping of tree frogs and crickets, while watching the play of moonlight on San San Bay.

Nightlife around Port Antonio consists of hotel bars, often with billiards, notably the stylish GeeJam and Trident hotels (ask the Front Desk to call ahead to request your visit); and LaBest and Cristal nightclubs. Occasionally on Saturday nights, a jazz band with a Ferrari-red Steinway performs at Trident.

On Saturday evenings, DJ Enrico from Italy hosts Vinyl Sundays (that was the original day) in our neighboring village of Drapers, playing Jamaican music from the last 50 years on, yes, vinyl only.

Sunsets are a good time to have a drink at the bar at Bikini Beach next to the Errol Flynn Marina in Port Antonio, or at the Trident Hotel.

And the many small bars that are found in any village or town are a great place to have a beer and experience an authentic slice of Jamaican life. Exercise the same precautions you would going out at night anywhere.

Beaches And Attractions

Each of the beautiful beaches in our area has its own distinct personality. Here are a few of our favorites.
(Note: beaches close by sundown, and most have paid entry.)

Frenchman's Cove Beach

The most celebrated of our beaches, and a sought-after location for movies and photo shoots. The beach is in a beautiful cove, and the water is refreshingly cool where the fresh water enters the sea. Bodysurfing can be enjoyed when conditions are right. A bar, casual grill, and beach chairs are available. The beach is less than a five-minute drive from the hotel, or a fifteen-minute walk, going west. There is a charge for entry, recently US$12 per person.

San San Beach

This is a long, shallow, warm water beach, just below Goblin Hill. San San is a good beach for children because the water is almost always calm, and shallow. Good swimmers or snorkelers can swim to Pellew Island, better known as Princess Nina Aga Khan's island, where there is a tiny, perfect beach. From Pellew, the reef stretches in both directions, opposite picturesque beach houses built into the sea. Walkers may take the beach stairs in front of Villa 1 down to the main road (lock code: 7204G), and walk ten minutes west toward the beach entry. (Note: the stairs are steep, and the gate to them closes at 6pm.) This is also a very short drive from Goblin Hill. There is a charge for entry, recently US$8 per person.

Winnifred Beach (Fairy Hill Beach)

This lovely beach is protected by a reef, and was the location for a Robin Williams movie, Club Paradise. The beach, which is public, is very popular with local residents as well as visitors, and is maintained by the community. At one end, Anthony Bourdain's friend Cynthia runs a popular restaurant selling fish, chicken and local accompaniments. The beach is about ten minutes from Goblin Hill driving east, just beyond the Jamaica Crest resort, on a road which takes you through a modern housing development, and then down to the beach.

The fit and adventurous may also park in front of the sign labeled 'Parking Lot', and walk the rest of the way down a steep, unpaved path of tree roots through the forest. There is no charge for entry, but you will be asked to make a small contribution towards maintaining the beach, say US$1 per person.

Boston Beach/Jerk Centre

Boston, five miles going east, is most famous as the home of the famous Jerk seasoning, which is a major legacy of the Maroons. Maroons were runaway slaves who used the dense vegetation of the mountainous interior to keep the British at bay, eventually negotiated a truce with them, and won a form of self-government. Some of our staff are proud descendants of the Maroons, who still live in the Rio Grande Valley. Wild boar were 'jerked', or cooked in pits underground to prevent the smoke from giving away their location, and the meat was highly spiced and cooked over pimento sticks, which contributes to its special flavor. Jerk is of course now popular all over Jamaica, and everything can be jerked, including pork, chicken and fish. Our favourite shop is Cee Lee, a bit past the beach across the street. Order a side dish of sweet, corn-based 'festival' bread, a cold beer, or coconut water at the same time. Cee Lee doesn't make jerk on Mondays and Tuesdays but serves other dishes then. Our other faves are Gurley Aston and Ital...ish.

Next to the jerk huts is Boston Beach, one of the most notable surfing beaches in Jamaica; a public beach with a J$200 per person entrance. For a quieter visit, go during the week, as there is music played on weekends. Once on the beach you will see that it is divided by a promontory into two parts. Some of the surfers offer lessons for about US$60 an hour.

Long Bay

Long Bay, going east for about 20 minutes en route to Reach Falls, is the best-kept secret in the area, a long, powdery beach with several casual beachside bars. Be careful: there is also a well-known undertow; stay close to shore if you swim. Long Bay is an excellent place to stop if you have visited Reach Falls nearby. It also gets sun later in the day than most other beaches in Portland. This is public beach with no charge. Have drinks at Açai Café after.

Reach Falls

Reach Falls (note: closed Monday and Tuesday) is not to be missed. Forty minutes east of Goblin Hill, these are pristine falls, with crystalline pools, hidden chutes and cool waters for swimming in a tropical rain forest. Follow the sign on the main road, up the secondary road that curves through beautiful coconut and banana fields for ten minutes, to the entrance. Entry is about US$10, and a tip for your guide is included. Reef shoes, strongly recommended, are available for sale. You will be completely submerged in water if you climb up the falls, so bring a waterproof camera, or ask your guide to hold your camera for you as you ascend. This trip is well combined with a visit to Long Bay.

The Blue Lagoon

This nearly 200-foot deep lagoon is a fifteen-minute walk down the hill from Goblin Hill. The deep blue water, the natural springs which feed the Lagoon, and the luxuriant, almost primordial vegetation around the Lagoon make it a unique location. Carefully cross the main road, turn right, and take the fork on the left, the seaside Blue Lagoon Road. You will pass homes built Venice-like directly on the sea.

If you are approached by vendors at the entrance to the road or near the Lagoon, a firm but polite “No, thank you” will suffice. There is no charge for using the road, or for visiting the Lagoon. Always agree rates for any service ahead of time. The Lagoon is not formally open and is hoped to be regulated and co-managed by the Jamaica National Heritage Trust and the Alligator Head Foundation. There is much to be done including authorizing rates, licensing vendors, and meeting environmental concerns.

Rafting On The Rio Grande

Rafting for enjoyment was popularized by the actor Errol Flynn after seeing this picturesque means of transporting bananas from the interior valleys to the coast for export on banana boats. ‘The Banana Boat Song’, with its refrain of “Day-o”, popularized by Harry Belafonte sixty years ago, was adapted from the traditional Jamaican work song of the crews loading the banana boats in the cool of the night, before daybreak. This is no whitewater adventure; you will spend a relaxing two and a half hours gliding down the river on a two-person bamboo raft poled along by a raftsman.

Bring Red Stripe or rum punch to this outing. You will find yourself in a tranquil world of limpid pools, bamboo-covered hills, and luxuriant foliage, where in deeper sections you may swim alongside your raft. Halfway down, a great Jamaican lunch by Belinda can be ordered in advance, to be served on the riverbanks. Book in advance at the Front Desk. It’s recommended to bring drinks and snacks and perhaps an umbrella for the sun.

Errol Flynn Marina/Esplanade

Located in the heart of Port Antonio at the foot of Titchfield Hill, the Marina and waterside park has a cruise ship pier, a beach, berths for boats up to superyacht size, a dive operation, casual poolside lunching, and a view of the Port Antonio harbour and of Navy Island — once a British naval station and later owned by actor Errol Flynn who kept his yacht, the Zaca, here. An esplanade winds around the harbor, ending with an attractive ice cream shop selling the famed ice cream from Devon House, a grand 1880s home in Kingston (now a museum with adjoining restaurants and shops that is a popular attraction in the city). National Geographic's “Food Journeys of a Lifetime” website feature lists Devon House 4th on its list of Top Ten Places to Eat Ice Cream.

Titchfield Hill

Titchfield Hill forms a promontory between Port Antonio’s twin harbors: the West Harbour where the Marina is located, and the shallow East Harbour with bars and small eateries. An easy walk to the top of the hill takes you to the sparse remnants of a 1720s British fort built for protection against Spanish attacks, featuring cannons atop ten-foot-thick emplacement walls. Today, it is home to Titchfield High School, founded in 1786. You may ask to enter the school grounds and visit the fortifications. Next door, overlooking Navy Island, was the site of the first hotel in Jamaica, the Titchfield Hotel, whose guests arrived on the banana boats that served Port Antonio's main industry. With its sea views and cooling breezes, Titchfield Hill was home to the local gentry in the 19th century, and its Victorian architecture is still evident in several of the houses. One of these is Demontevin Lodge, an 1881 Victorian guesthouse that is still in operation, which it’s said has played host to visits by Elizabeth the Queen Mother and Queen Elizabeth II.

Somerset Falls

When the water is up, these small, beautiful falls 25 minutes west of Port Antonio are accessed by a short rowboat ride across green pools set in the forest and through a hidden cave. Those arriving or departing from Ken Jones Aerodrome a half-mile away, especially, would be absolutely remiss not to visit.

Hikes

There are a variety of hikes in the lush Rio Grande Valley (one identifies 60 varieties of fern), ranging from a couple of hours, to day-long. Request to end up at Scatter Falls, or make it a birdwatching excursion. Here in the lower Blue Mountains the Maroons, escaped slaves, lived and fought a successful guerrilla war against the British two centuries ago. We will book for you at the Front Desk.

You may also enjoy the steep roads right around Goblin Hill, past vacation villas under lush tree canopies.

Downhill Bicycle Tours

This is a full day's outing, with a good, good deal of driving. The 95%-no-peddalling tour begins with an 8:30am pickup at Buff Bay, about 40 minutes west of Goblin Hill, for a 4pm return. A one-and-a-half-hour bus ride takes you to the lower Blue Mountains for a 9-18 mile downhill ride through the misty, cool range famous as the home of some of the most expensive coffee in the world, and topped by a 7,400-foot peak. Separate visits can be arranged to a coffee plantation to see how coffee is grown and roasted. Book at BMToursja.com or via the Front Desk.

Fishing

Deep-sea fishing for Jamaica's signature blue marlin, along with mahi-mahi, king fish, snapper, tuna and wahoo, is available with Lady G'Diver (dive@ladygdiver.com) or on the 'Irie Vibes' (info@irievibesfishing.com). Please observe seasonal catch restrictions. Bring your own lunch and drinks. Each year in October, there is a week-long Blue Marlin Fishing Tournament in Port Antonio, now in its sixth decade and a fun social gathering as well.

Scuba, Snorkeling, Paddleboarding, Kayaking

Lady G'Diver, located at the Alligator Head Foundation HQ near us, is the oldest dive shop in Jamaica. Its licensed and insured team offers a range of dives that start fifteen minutes from the Marina, and teaches diving and snorkeling in secluded coves along the coast. They also lead snorkeling trips, and rent kayaks and stand-up paddleboards. Book at dive@ladygdiver.com or via the Front Desk.

Birding

Portland is very popular with birders. The island hosts 324 bird species, 28 of them endemic. Most of these can be seen right here on our property, and their distinct calls in the morning are varied and striking.

A poster showing Jamaican species you may possibly see at Goblin Hill is hanging in our Reception lobby. Arrangements may be made for an experienced guide to take you on a memorable birdwatching excursion in the area. And you need go no further than our Terrace or pool for frequent sightings of several hummingbird species hovering at the feeders — most spectacularly, the magnificent indigenous Doctor Bird, symbol of Jamaica, with its long, twin, streamer-like tail-feathers.

History

There's an oddly outsize history to this little area. Here is the first hotel in Jamaica, the 400-room Titchfield Hotel, visited by J.P. Morgan and Clara Bow, and later owned and managed by, of all people, the hard-living bon vivant actor Errol Flynn (whose widow lived near us until her passing just a few years ago). The setting of movies from No Time To Die to Lord of the Flies to Cocktail to Club Paradise to The Mighty Quinn to Knight and Day. The Folly mansion, owned by the Tiffany heiress and part-time home of Machu Picchu rediscoverer Hiram Bingham. The British fort of Fort George. The birthplace of surfing and jerk seasoning (the latter invented by escaped slaves, the Maroons, who forced the British army to an armistice) in Jamaica. Flynn's lands, a cattle ranch with stone-walled fields straight out of the English countryside, where his grandson lives. The Victorian architecture of Titchfield Hill. A Bavarian castle and Tudor shopping mall, nearby. Our neighborhood of San San, home to the Aga Khan's brother; his wife, famed model Nina Dyer—and the island, just off our property, she got from an earlier marriage to neighbour Baron von Thyssen, owner of the largest art collection in the world besides the Queen's; the Molson beer family; an architect of the Marshall Plan, Burke Knapp; music producer Diplo, and New York tech entrepreneurs and restaurant magnates. A megayacht marina. One of the world's most magical beaches, at Frenchman's Cove, once the most luxurious and expensive hotel in the Caribbean, owned by the Canadian business magnates the Westons. Do explore.

In addition to renting you a car, they can provide a driver to meet you at either of the two major airports, and drive you over in your car, relieving you of driving when you are tired, and need to drive on the left, and perhaps at night. The driver is accompanied by another car whose driver returns him to the airport, leaving you with your car for the rest of your stay. Alternatively, they can provide one-way transfers, simply dropping you off at the hotel. Kingston is a lovely if winding 3 hrs. to Port Antonio. Montego Bay is 4 hrs. away, and is a straighter road that allows excursions such as swimming with dolphins or climbing Dunn's River Falls along the way if you so choose. Email us your travel details so we may assist you with rentals or transfers.

For those in a hurry, there are also air charters to the airstrip 25 minutes away, and helicopters can land right on our Great Lawn. This reduces your transfer time to 20 minutes from Kingston and 35 minutes from Montego Bay. Book at jamaicahelicopterservices.com or captainsaviation.com. Airplane charters: Airlink Express/JamAir: 876.940.6660, 940.4870, 940.0195; Tim Air: 952.2516

CHECK-IN/CHECK-OUT

Check-in time is 3pm. Check-out time is noon. Late checkout or early check-in is available at an additional charge, space permitting. Please enquire at the Front Desk.

CHURCH SERVICES

Sunday services are held at 7am at the Anglican Church, 7am at the Catholic Church and 9:30am at the Baptist Church. Please enquire at the Front Desk for directions. The beautiful, sand-floored synagogue of the oldest continuously-operating Jewish community in the Western Hemisphere is 3 hours away in Kingston, and is well worth a visit for services or to view its museum exhibit. Ask us to call ahead.

CONSERVATION

Goblin Hill strives to be as environmentally conscious as possible. We can line-dry your towels in the sun on a dedicated clothesline for your villa; just hang up your towels anywhere in the bathroom. A towel on the floor means 'I'd like a fresh one.' We won't change towels and sheets for stays of three nights or less, unless requested.

Please help us protect our reefs from sunscreen. Wear rash guards, and bring 100% biodegradable sunscreen such as zinc oxide or titanium dioxide, over 100 nanometers in size; no oxybenzone.

We use solar water heaters for the villas and our laundry. If there is prolonged cloudy weather, your hot water supply will be topped up with the backup electrical system, which your housekeeper will turn on. We also harvest rainwater, and use vinegar- and lime-based solutions where possible for cleaning and insect prevention.

To conserve energy, please turn off your air-conditioning units when not in your bedroom. The villas are designed to make the most of natural light and cross-ventilation. During the day you will notice that breezes flow through your villa from the sea, and in the early evening, from the hills.

DINING IN THE AREA

Try Woody's (closed Sun. & Wed.), a charming, casual spot in nearby Drapers, for hamburgers, veggie burgers, and superb homemade ginger drink made from Miss Cherry's secret recipe; jerk dishes from Cee Lee near Boston Beach (call 993.8024 by 11am to order; no jerk on Mon. & Tue.) or Gurley Aston; vegetarian comfort food at Itali...ish across the street from Cee Lee; drinks and modern lounge beats at Acai Cafe in Long Bay; Fish, pasta and chicken at Wilks Cuisine; GeeJam resort's Bushbar (reservations required); contemporary Jamaican-inspired dishes at Trident Hotel (reservations required); Jamaican and Continental cuisine at Great Huts hotel on Boston Bay; Jamaican favourites at Soldier Camp in Port Antonio; laid-back Italian lunches at The Italian Job; casual poolside lunch at the Errol Flynn Marina in Port Antonio, followed by a delicious Devon House ice cream on the harbourside marina promenade.

DRUGS

While driving, your car may be stopped and searched by armed police as part of their anti-drug efforts. Possession of ganja (marijuana) outside the home is an offence subject to a fine.

ELECTRICITY

Jamaica is on a 50-cycle, 110-volt standard. Typical U.S. 60-cycle, 110-volt devices will also work on this standard. Villas are equipped with lamps and candles in the event of a power cut. Our central facilities and walkway lights are powered by generator.

EVENING ENTERTAINMENT

[See the On the Property section on page 5 for information on our Manager's Rum Punch Party, our Bar, and other activities in the area.]

EXERCISE AND GAMES

Left out the Goblin Hill entrance, then a right turn 150 feet later will take you up a steep road dotted with vacation homes, ideal for strenuous walks or runs. A less hilly but equally quiet and beautiful route may be had going right, outside the Goblin Hill entrance; 20 minutes later along a road also dotted with the occasional villa, this will ultimately take you out across the street from Frenchman's Cove Beach, and is a lovely way to go to that beach.

Our lawns are ideal for a lazy, largely stationary game of catch with a ball, but running, fast play, and team sports are not advised, as our lush Zoysia grass's sponginess and height make it risky for ankles.

FOOD FOR YOUR ARRIVAL

See: The Food Experience, on page 2.

HAIRDRESSERS

Selected hairdressers in Port Antonio or Kingston will come to the Hotel for appointments. Please inquire at the Front Desk.

INSURANCE

We strongly recommend purchasing travel insurance, such as from travelexinsurance.com.

IRONS

Irons and blow dryers are available on request.

KEYS

Please leave your keys at the Front Desk when you are out during the day. There is a US$10 charge for lost keys.

LAUNDRY

Personal laundry service is available, charged by item, payable through your guest account at the Front Desk. Ask your housekeeper for a laundry form.

MASSAGE, YOGA, BODYWORK

Massage therapists and yoga teachers are available to come to the hotel by appointment, and you may enjoy a treatment on your villa terrace or on our lawns overlooking Princess Nina Aga Khan's Island. We usually have a 10am yoga class on our Terrace on Saturday mornings. See the Front Desk to book.

MEALS

A $48-per-adult breakfast-and-dinner can be delivered to your villa. ($24 for kids 7-12.) Or, for a charge of $36 daily, your own personal cook will prepare and serve breakfast, lunch and dinner; groceries are extra. See 'The Food Experience' section on page 4, for more information.

OFFICE HOURS

Receptionists are on duty from 7am to 10pm.

PALM BRANCHES AND COCONUTS

Please look out for signs posted in specific parts of the property, to beware of falling palm branches or coconuts. They're very dangerous; even fatal!

PLANNING YOUR STAY

Our Front Desk staff will be pleased to meet with you to give you an insider's view of our beautiful area, and make suggestions to suit your interests.

SAFETY DEPOSIT BOXES

There are a limited number of boxes in the villas and at the Front Desk. Lost key replacement is US$10, applied against a required deposit.

SECURITY

Our Security team has one member at the Hummingbird Terrace at all times, after 7pm, while the others walk the property; you will see them in their reflective yellow vests. They are the ones to contact for any reason at all, including guest check-ins, after the Front Desk closes at 10pm, via WhatsApp at 876.416.5917. Feel free to call them for any reason, even non-security ones such as a maintenance issue at your villa. You may also phone them at: Ewin Anderson: +876.482.0307. Jason Jacks: 414.6723. Errol King: 887.1452. Michael Wright: 369.4620

Police: +876.327.5013, +876.993.3220, or 119.

SMOKING

Smoking is not permitted in the public spaces of the hotel or in the villas. You may smoke in open-air spaces anywhere where other guests will not smell the smoke.

SUNSCREEN/RASH GUARDS

Please help us protect our reefs from sunscreen. Wear rash guards to reduce the amount of sunscreen you have to use, and bring 100% biodegradable sunscreen such as zinc oxide or titanium dioxide, over 100 nanometers in size; no oxybenzone.

TAXI SERVICE AND TRANSPORTATION IN THE AREA

Only licensed cabs with a red license plate are allowed to drop off or pick up from the hotel. The Front Desk can call one of our regular taxi drivers; please ask your Housekeeper to have them call, and allow up to a half-hour for arrival. Or you can call our preferred taxi driver Petey directly at +876.363.7889, +876.877.1538 or +876.324.6465. You may also hail a very reasonably-priced, frequent Route Taxi anywhere on the main coastal road; again, they will have red licence plates. You will share your ride with other passengers your driver picks up. Ask the fare before you get in, but as a reference point, it should be about J$130 (or US$1) to go from the main road at the bottom of Goblin Hill to the town of Port Antonio.

TELEVISION

Live cable TV is available in the Library next door to Reception.

Please download TV shows and movies before leaving home, to watch offline on your own device while here. Televisions in the villas are used for streaming music and news via the 1.FM and France 24 apps on our Roku systems; and watching our library of movies via the Plex app. Please bring your own HDMI cable to connect your laptop or mobile device to your TV for viewing on its larger screen if you choose.

TELEPHONES

Please use your mobile to call our Front Desk via WhatsApp at 876.416.5917, or via phone at +876.993.7443 for all requests, including to call your housekeeper/cook, until 10pm. After 10pm, please call our Security team for anything you may need: via WhatsApp at 876.416.5917, or vi phone to: Ewin Anderson: +876.482.0307. Jason Jacks: 414.6723. Errol King: 887.1452. Michael Wright: 369.4620.

TENNIS

Our courts are currently awaiting resurfacing. Racquets and balls are available on loan at the Front Desk. If you need a partner for tennis, tennis pro Nicky is experienced at coaching children and adults, and providing practice sessions. Rates are US$20 per hour and he can also rent racquets.

We are delighted you have chosen Goblin Hill. If there is anything we can do to add to your enjoyment or comfort, please let us know. Thank you for staying with us, and please return soon to enjoy another rum punch at the Hummingbird Terrace Bar!

TIPPING

For those who choose the personal cook/housekeeper service, you may want to reward your cook directly based on how pleased you have been with her service. Guests often request guidelines and we advise that an average tip is about 7% of the room rate, or more if you feel you have received exceptional service, over and above the expected. Please let us know about your housekeeper experience, as this will guide us in our continuing efforts in training, and/or recognition.

TRANQUILITY

To preserve the calm of the Goblin Hill stay, we ask that you not use audio devices on the grounds or by the pool unless with headphones, with no spillover sound. We ask that anything played on your TV or on devices inside your villa not be heard outside the villa. Please bring bicycles, not ATVs or motorcycles, and be sparing with your use of drones.

VISITORS

For your privacy and that of all our guests, only registered guests are permitted in the villas and on the grounds. Please entertain any guests at our bar at the Hummingbird Terrace or in our Library. Visitors are asked to give their name to the Front Desk staff. They will call you and either take a message or give your guest a seat while waiting for you to come. Accompanied tours of the property are always available, from the Front Desk.

WEDDINGS

We would be delighted to host your wedding on our acres of lawns and gardens at Goblin Hill, with our dramatic views of San San Bay. Please write frontdesk@goblinhill.com to request our info packet.

WET CLOTHES

To maintain an attractive environment at the hotel, please give personal items to your housekeeper to air-dry in our laundry area, not on your villa terrace.

WHEN FRONT DESK/OFFICE IS CLOSED

After 10pm, please speak to a member of our Security team, who after 7pm are based at the Hummingbird Terrace and also walking the entire property. Call via WhatsApp at 876.416.5917 for even non-security issues such as a maintenance issue at your villa. You may also phone them at: Ewin Anderson: +876.482.0307. Jason Jacks: 414.6723. Errol King: 887.1452. Michael Wright: 369.4620
Police: +876.993.7315.

WI-FI

Complimentary low-speed internet access via wi-fi is available in several places on the property, suitable for web browsing and email only, not video streaming; and throttled at 5mps per device. Ask at the Front Desk for the password. Please download movies and TV shows at home for offline viewing on your device here.
